- 126 GENERAL GORDON—QUEEN VICTORIA.—An interesting letter from Queen Victoria to a sister of General Gordon, expressing her sympathy and indignation.

“Osborn, July 11th, 1885.

Dear Miss Gordon,

I must myself thank you for the volume of your dear Brother's Diary. Beatrice and I are reading it with the deepest and saddest interest, and with, I must add, indignation and horror—the more painful to me as I did ALL I could to support ALL your great and good brother asked for, and had the INEXPRESSIBLE sorrow NEVER to succeed in GETTING his good demands agreed to.

I hope I may see you here some day next month.

Ever Yours most sincerely,

V.R.I.”

- 126 GENERAL GORDON—QUEEN VICTORIA.—An interesting letter from Queen Victoria to a sister of General Gordon, expressing her sympathy and indignation.

“Osborn, July 11th, 1885.

Dear Miss Gordon,

I must myself thank you for the volume of your dear Brother's Diary. Beatrice and I are reading it with the deepest and saddest interest, and with, I must add, indignation and horror—the more painful to me as I did ALL I could to support ALL your great and good brother asked for, and had the INEXPRESSIBLE sorrow NEVER to succeed in GETTING his good demands agreed to.

I hope I may see you here some day next month.

Ever Yours most sincerely,

V.R.I.”

- 6/- 126 GENERAL GORDON—QUEEN VICTORIA.—An interesting letter from Queen Victoria to a sister of General Gordon, expressing her sympathy and indignation.

“Osborn, July 11th, 1885.

Dear Miss Gordon,

I must myself thank you for the volume of your dear Brother's Diary. Beatrice and I are reading it with the deepest and saddest interest, and with, I must add, indignation and horror—the more painful to me as I did ALL I could to support ALL your great and good brother asked for, and had the INEXPRESSIBLE sorrow NEVER to succeed in GETTING his good demands agreed to.

I hope I may see you here some day next month.

Ever Yours most sincerely,

V.R.I.”
